

Leland P. Frost is a senior associate at Kazmarek Mowrey Cloud Laseter LLP in its Birmingham, Alabama office.

Leland's practice covers a broad range of environmental litigation and appeals, enforcement, risk assessment, compliance, investigations, and regulatory counseling. He routinely represents and advises clients on matters involving the Clean Water Act (CWA), Toxic Substances Control Act (TSCA), Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA), Clean Air Act (CAA), and climate change. Leland also advises clients on Superfund (CERCLA) and Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) issues, as well as Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) compliance. Leland's experience includes representing clients before agencies and legislators, in more than a dozen state and federal courts, and in numerous briefs in the U.S. Supreme Court. He serves as co-chair of the American Bar Association's Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources (SEER) Enforcement and Litigation Committee.

Leland received a B.A. in economics, cum laude, from Furman University and received a J.D. from Vanderbilt University Law School, where he was a Dean's Scholar and served as editor in chief of the Vanderbilt Journal of Transnational Law and as an editor on the Environmental Law and Policy Annual Review.
